Potato salad is a nice dish for a light Sunday supper. It may be made in a hurry by boiling the pointoes in salted water, letting them stand till almost ool, cutting them into dice, adding a generous portion of butter, half an onion shredded fine, three tablespoonfuls of vinegar, all mixed well together and served cold. But when it is desirable or the salad to look nice as well as to taste good, mix the potatoes and onions put them in a salad dish and pour over hem a French dressing made with two ablespoonfuls of salad oil or butter, the solk of one egg and three tablespoonfuls of vinegar, mixing carefully the egg and butter and adding vinegar carefully. The dish is then garnished with slices of hard-boiled eggs and sprigs of pars-
